

Color Eva's Treehouse

GRADE: PREK

Eva's home is unique! While kids color and practice number identification, start a class discussion about different kinds of homes (animal and human).

TIP: Spell and say the color words together to boost early reading skills.

Help Eva Get Home

GRADE: PREK

On Eva the Owlet, Kira uses a map to explore town. As kids complete this map to Eva's house, they also build letter recognition and fine-motor skills.

TIP: Before doing this activity, have students practice writing the letters E, F, and B.

Who's in the Band?

GRADE: PREK

When Eva and her friends start a band, each owl plays a different instrument. Find out which instrument each of them play with this activity page.

TRY THIS: Provide small percussion instruments for your class. Model a rhythm pattern and ask kids to repeat it, then try new patterns to challenge their listening and motor skills.

What Do You Love?

GRADES: K-1

Eva's diary writing builds self-awareness and feelings of gratitude. Strengthen your students' social emotional skills with this draw-and-write page.

TIP: Have pre-writers dictate their sentences to you.

TRY THIS: Display finished work on a bulletin board titled, "THINGS WE LOVE."

Help the Planet!

GRADES: K-1

Working together is important, whether it's to win the Treetop Treat contest or clean up the community.

Brainstorm ways kids can help with this activity sheet.

TRY THIS: Pair with an article or video about environmental advocate Greta Thunberg.

I'm With the Band!

GRADES: K-1

In Eva in the Band, Eva learns that everyone has different talents. Invite kids to discuss talents or interests that they have before they complete this activity.

TIP: Suggest other ways that students might contribute to a band, like making the costumes, or organizing rehearsals. Remind the class that every job is important to a group's success.

A Tree About ME!

GRADES: 2-3

This activity is perfect for building classroom community and connections.

TRY THIS: Collect the information and use it for math lessons. Create class graphs of likes or dislikes and invite kids to write data-analysis word problems.

Nature Walk

Eva's diary entries are usually full of details. This page asks kids to help Eva describe her day.

TRY THIS: Show the class a variety of leaves (include many different colors and shapes). Put the leaves in a bag and select one. Without showing it to students, describe the leaf, and have them guess which one you chose. Each sentence should get more specific, to show the power of describing words. (It's a leaf. It's a big leaf. It's a big, red leaf. It's a big, red leaf with three pointed edges.)

Eva's Musical Word Find

GRADES: 2-3

Whether you're reading Eva's in the Band or learning music-related words, this word find is a fun way to build vocabulary.

TIP: Use this page as a morning starter or as a fast finisher activity.
