Bestselling author Jim Benton with a new spin on a fantastic series!

"Dear Dumb Diary. . . Before school, Isabella had me fix her hair in the girls' bathroom. Her hair really is quite beautiful. It's black and thick and glossy, like the majestic hair on a lion if that was black.

She had a test later, and she had written the answers on a slice of baloney in the sandwich she brought for lunch. If the teacher saw her, she could just eat the sandwich and destroy the evidence. But she wasn't thinking, and accidentally ate her lunch while I was doing her hair. Beauty can really make you hungry."

Gorgeous
By Paul Rudnick

When an ordinary girl is magically transformed into a world-class beauty, she must battle to stay true to herself

When Becky Randle's mother dies, she's taken from her trailer park home to New York. There she meets the world's top designer, who presents Becky with an impossible offer: He'll design three dresses to transform her into the most beautiful woman who ever lived. Becky is remade as Rebecca and she seems to have it all — until she realizes that the world is in love with her outer, not inner, beauty. With writing that's hilarious, profane, and profound (often within a single sentence), Rudnick casts a knowing eye on our obsession with fame, brand names, and royalty to create a feel-good story about getting what you want without letting beauty blind you to what's real. This will appeal to both teens and adults alike.
