

Booktalk!

World War II: Book One: The Right Fight

by Chris Lynch

Booktalk!

Everything changed so fast. One day, Roman was playing minor-league baseball, proposing to the woman he loved and horsing around with the guys in the dugout. Now it all seems so far away. War is like that.

Still, Roman had no choice but to enlist; the Nazis had been picking a fight for too long, and it was up to guys like him to show that the U.S. wasn't just going to sit back and watch.

At first, it all feels like waiting. He just wants to be in the fight! But once he's in it ... there's no going back from what he's seen. Or done.

Best for ages 12 & up