Ripper

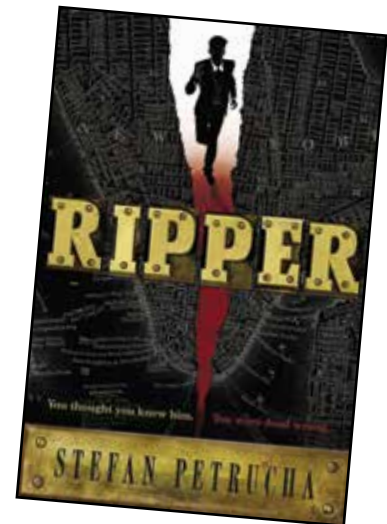

by Stefan Petrucha

Booktalk!

Ever since he fell in love with detective stories, Carver has developed a peculiar set of skills. He picked a lock to look at his own files at the orphanage where he grew up, and now everything about his past seems like a mystery to be solved.

When he's adopted by a world-famous agency designed to solve real crimes, Carver thinks his dreams are coming true ... until his situation turns into more of a nightmare. This agency doesn't just want to train him; they want his help finding Jack the Ripper. But why him?

It all comes down to blood.

Best for ages 12 & up
