Have Fun, Molly Lou Melon

by Patty Lovell

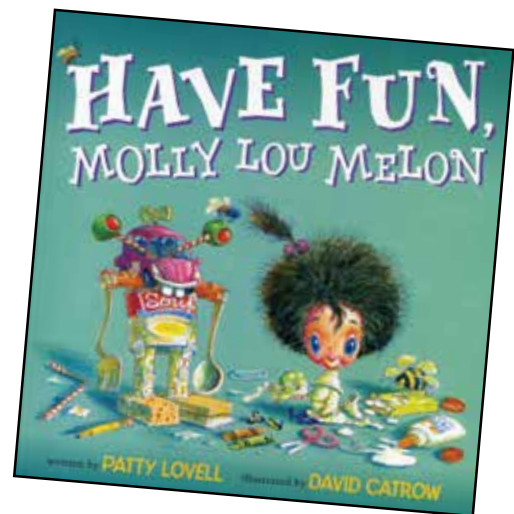

illustrated by David Catrow

Booktalk!

Molly Lou Melon's new neighbor, Gertie, has lots of fancy toys. A big-screen TV. A dollhouse with real appliances and working lights. Even a racecar. Gertie can't wait to show these toys to Molly Lou Melon, but Molly Lou's got something of her own to show Gertie: her imagination.

Whether she's finding pictures in the clouds or making phone calls from tin cans, Molly Lou Melon is always following her grandmother's advice to create her own fun wherever she goes.

She's created her own world of fun, and she's about to teach Gertie a trick or two!

Best for ages 4-7
