Count the Monkeys

Booktalk!

Let's count the monkeys. Are you ready? Okay!

But oh, no ... there's one giant snake in the way. What can we do? Oh, wait! Two mongooses scared him off. Phew! That was close. But now the mongooses are running around, scaring off the monkeys! And who knows what's waiting on the next page?

In this interactive book, you'll need to high-five, holler, and hum to get to the title characters that are patiently waiting for you. Luckily, the creatures you meet along the way are zany, hilarious guides – even when they get in the way!

Best for ages 4–7
