A celebration of a modern master—and an inspiration to anyone who's ever felt judged!

Just Behave, Pablo Picasso! “One day the world is a peaceful, lovely landscape painting.... The next day—BLAM!—Pablo bursts through the canvas, paintbrush in hand, ready to paint something fresh and new.” Pablo Picasso may have been one of the most famous artists of the 20th century, but that doesn't mean he painted what people wanted him to paint! In fact, some people hated his paintings, and called them “ugly!” and “terrible!”—something many kids can relate to. But Picasso didn't listen to all those people, and kept on working the way he wanted to work, until he created something so new, so different that people didn't know what to say! For every young artist who's drawn something other kids think is “ugly,” this story of rebellion and creativity is sure to inspire. 9780545132916 HC $16.99

The Puppy Place—where every puppy finds a home!

THE PUPPY PLACE

By Ellen Miles

Bandit

Bandit is an adorable black and white Shih Tzu with a mask-like marking over his eyes. Lizzie discovers him at a highway rest stop restaurant. He was abandoned by his owners because he needs an operation and they couldn't afford it. Lizzie and her family take Bandit in and begin fundraising for the expensive procedure. Maria and her uncle Teo are also a big help. Maria and Lizzie establish competing dog-alking businesses to raise funds. Everyone who meets Bandit falls instantly in love—except for Uncle Teo, who thinks he's a little too small and fluffy. In the end, Bandit's operation is a success. Uncle Teo is won over by the resilient puppy and agrees to adopt him.
