SCHOLASTIC

In an America devastated by war and plague,
the only way to survive is to keep moving.

The Eleventh Plague

Written by Jeff Hirsch

Narrated by TBA

In the aftermath of a war, America's landscape has been ravaged and two thirds of the population left dead from influenza. Fifteen-year-old Stephen Quinn and his family were among the few that survived. But when Stephen's grandfather dies and his father falls into a coma, Stephen finds his way to Settler's Landing, a community that seems too good to be true.

There he meets strong, defiant, mischievous Jenny and when they play a prank on the town bully's family that goes horribly wrong, they find themselves in the midst of a battle that will change Settler's Landing forever.

Caldecott Medalist Chris Raschka makes his dazzling fiction debut!

Seriously, Norman!

Written by Chris Raschka • Narrated by TBA

Why, why are grown-ups so insane?

That's exactly the question that Norman, Anna and Emma (the twins), and I, Leonard, try to answer. And with the help of Norman's new tutor, Balthazar Birdsong (also fairly nuts), we nearly do it, too.

No, seriously!
